Minimum order of 50 pieces

Ever felt like taking a trip to a different time and place? No, we don't offer a branded time machine (not yet, at least), but we do offer the perfect accessory that will leave you with a nostalgic feeling that comes as close to transporting you back to the 90's as we can get. This full-color sublimated scrunchie is the perfect way accessory to advertise your brand in a manner that gets daily usage (and impressions). Whether they're at the gym, at the office or running errands, this scrunchie is as great for your brand as it is for their retro appreciation.
